CALL FOR PAPERS

IX Forum of Linguistic Sharing
21st November 2014, Lisbon (Portugal)

CLUNL's Young Researchers Group is pleased to announce the IX Forum of Linguistic Sharing, which will take place on the 21st November 2014 at Faculdade de Ciências Sociais e Humanas - Universidade Nova de Lisboa.

The aim of the congress is to give the opportunity to all-level students to present their research and interchanging opinions. Thereby, we invite all young researchers who work in different fields of Linguistics to participate in this congress.

Likewise, we would like to remind you that only undergraduate students, BA graduates, MA students, masters and PhD students can present papers in this congress. Each author can propose only one paper and only via email (jiclunl@fcsh.unl.pt).

The available modes of presentation are the following:
- Oral presentation: each presentation can last up to 20 minutes, plus 10 minutes for debate and questions.
- Poster: discussion with participants regarding the contents displayed in the poster. The session will last 30 minutes.

The format of the abstract should be as follows:
- Title
- Author(s): name(s), affiliation, degree/attended course and email address
- Area(s) of Linguistics
- Mode of presentation (oral or poster)
- Abstract (maximum 500 words)
- Aspects to be addressed: topic and its relevance, objectives, methodology, description of results
- Text formatting: Times New Roman, 12pt, spacing 1.5, A4, with 2.5cm margins, in a Word file.
- References (maximum 10)
- Keywords (maximum 5)

Two copies of each abstract should be sent: an anonymous one and an identified one. Papers can be sent in Portuguese and or English, which will be the working languages in the conference.

Once the summaries are evaluated and selected by a proper Scientific Committee, the result will be conveyed to each author respectively and payment instructions will be explained.

Deadline for submission of abstracts: 15th May 2014.
