ABSTRACT: From the point of view of Discourse Analysis, the main objective of this study is to describe the “macrostructure” of current homiletic discourse. The description combines the rhetorical postulates from pagan classical writers such as Cicero or Quintilian and Christian ones from St. Augustine or fray Luis de Granada with the current rules. The purpose is to obtain integrative conclusions on tradition and discoursing contemporaneity.