ABSTRACT: This research aims at analysing and describing, in the framework of French Semiotics theoretical and methodological orientations, semantic-discursive aspects of modal structures used at news collected in Brazilian newspapers intended to a more scholarship public (O Globo and Folha de São Paulo) in order to observe its argumentative role.